Roaring Twenties Jeopardy

Answer Key — Set 2

BOOM TIMES

$100	Many Americans invested heavily in this financial market during the decade, often borrowing to do so.	What is the stock market?
$200	This term describes the dramatic rise in spending on radios, cars, and appliances that defined the decade's economy.	What is consumerism (consumer culture)?
$300	This cabinet official, Andrew Mellon, pushed for deep tax cuts that mainly benefited businesses and the wealthy.	Who is the Secretary of the Treasury?
$400	This industry boomed in the 1920s, using new psychological techniques to convince Americans to buy more goods.	What is advertising?
$500	Despite the boom, this sector of the economy struggled all decade with overproduction and falling prices.	What is agriculture (farming)?

CULTURE & HARLEM

$100	This fast, kicking dance craze became a signature symbol of flapper culture in the 1920s.	What is the Charleston?
$200	This trumpet virtuoso and bandleader from New Orleans helped bring jazz to a nationwide audience.	Who is Louis Armstrong?
$300	This 1920 constitutional amendment gave women the right to vote, just as the decade's social attitudes began to shift.	What is the Nineteenth Amendment?
$400	Harlem Renaissance writer Zora Neale Hurston is best known for her fiction and folklore exploring this.	What is African American (Southern Black) culture and folklore?
$500	This term describes the generation of 1920s writers, including Hemingway and Fitzgerald, who felt disillusioned after World War I.	What is the Lost Generation?

RED SCARE & NATIVISM

$100	This U.S. attorney general ordered sweeping 1919–20 raids that rounded up thousands of suspected radicals and immigrants. Who is A. Mitchell Palmer (the Palmer Raids)?
$200	These two Italian immigrant anarchists were controversially convicted and executed in 1927, in a case many believed was driven by anti-immigrant bias. Who are Sacco and Vanzetti?
$300	This now-discredited belief, that certain racial or ethnic groups were biologically superior, helped fuel support for immigration restriction. What is eugenics (scientific racism)?
$400	This former presidential candidate led the prosecution against Clarence Darrow in the 1925 Scopes evolution trial. Who is William Jennings Bryan?
$500	This 1921 law set the first numerical immigration quotas, before being tightened further in 1924. What is the Emergency Quota Act (Immigration Act of 1921)?

NEW MEDIA & TECH

$100	This new mass entertainment industry, built around ornate theaters and movie stars, exploded in popularity in the 1920s. What is the movie industry (Hollywood)?
$200	This household utility, now wired into millions more homes, powered the radios and appliances families bought in the decade. What is electricity?
$300	Babe Ruth became a national celebrity in this sport, helped along by new radio broadcasts of games. What is baseball?
$400	Charles Lindbergh's single-engine plane, famous for his 1927 transatlantic flight, carried this name. What is the Spirit of St. Louis?
$500	Assembly-line production and new paved roads combined to make this form of travel possible for ordinary families. What is automobile (car) travel?

KEY VOCABULARY

$100	Farming someone else's land and paying rent with most of your own crop, a system that often kept Southern families poor and in debt. What is sharecropping?
$200	Making products in the same sizes with the same parts, so any piece fits any machine. What is standardization?
$300	A now-discredited belief that a government could improve its people by controlling who was allowed to have children. What is eugenics?
$400	The business and science of flying airplanes, an industry that grew fast in the 1920s and hired pilots, mechanics, and factory workers. What is aviation?
$500	A performer who stands out alone; Louis Armstrong is said to have changed jazz into this kind of art. What is a soloist?