Roaring Twenties Jeopardy

Answer Key — Set 3

BOOM TIMES

$100	This nickname for the decade, celebrating its booming economy and wild social changes, is also the name of this very game.	What are “the Roaring Twenties”?
$200	Department stores and mail-order catalogs expanded rapidly in the 1920s, reflecting this broader shift toward buying more goods.	What is consumerism (mass consumption)?
$300	This retail innovation, with name-brand items pre-wrapped on open shelves for shoppers to browse themselves, spread rapidly in the decade.	What is the self-service grocery store?
$400	President Calvin Coolidge, who succeeded Harding, was known for this hands-off governing philosophy that favored business with minimal interference.	What is “the business of America is business” (pro-business, laissez-faire government)?
$500	This 1920s tax policy, championed by Treasury Secretary Mellon, slashed top income tax rates for the wealthy.	What are Mellon's tax cuts (supply-side/trickle-down tax policy)?

CULTURE & HARLEM

$100	This Harlem Renaissance philosopher and editor compiled the influential 1925 anthology “The New Negro” and is often called the movement's father.	Who is Alain Locke?
$200	This famous Harlem ballroom was known for integrated audiences enjoying jazz and swing dancing all night long.	What is the Savoy Ballroom?
$300	Known as the “Empress of the Blues,” this singer became one of the most popular Black performers of the decade.	Who is Bessie Smith?
$400	Many young women in the 1920s shocked older generations by cutting their hair into this short, modern style.	What is a bob (bobbed hair)?
$500	This 1925 novel by F. Scott Fitzgerald critiques the emptiness behind the glittering wealth of the Jazz Age.	What is “The Great Gatsby”?

RED SCARE & NATIVISM

$100	Labor strikes in the 1920s were often blamed on this perceived foreign threat, fueling public fear and crackdowns.	What is communism (radicalism, the Red Scare)?
$200	The 1924 immigration law set quotas based on each nationality's share of the U.S. population in this earlier census year, favoring northern and western Europe.	What is 1890 (the 1890 census)?
$300	Besides Black Americans, the resurgent 1920s Klan also targeted members of these two religious groups.	Who are Catholics and Jews?
$400	In the Scopes Trial, teacher John Scopes was charged with violating this Tennessee state law banning the teaching of evolution.	What is the Butler Act?
$500	This term for insisting American culture stay dominant and unchanged by immigrant influence fueled 1920s immigration restriction.	What is nativism (“100% Americanism”)?

NEW MEDIA & TECH

$100	This 1927 film, the first with synchronized dialogue and singing, marked the beginning of the end for silent movies.	What is “The Jazz Singer”?
$200	This technology let families across the country hear the same broadcast, from presidential speeches to World Series games, at the same moment.	What is radio?
$300	Household appliances powered by this utility, now reaching millions more homes in the 1920s, transformed daily domestic life.	What is electricity?
$400	This mass-produced print media, including pulp magazines and daily papers, kept Americans informed and entertained all decade.	What is the newspaper/magazine industry (print media)?
$500	This 1920s form of air travel, alongside airplanes, captured the public imagination even before Lindbergh's famous flight.	What is aviation (the airplane/airship)?

KEY VOCABULARY

$100	Being kept from voting, which left many Black Southerners with little say in their own government. What is disenfranchisement?
$200	Henry Ford's first automobile, built in 1896 with a light frame and bicycle-style wheels. What is the Quadricycle?
$300	A person who sold alcohol illegally during Prohibition. What is a bootlegger?
$400	A way to pay for something, like a washing machine, in small payments over time instead of all at once. What is the installment plan?
$500	Recordings made in the 1920s by Black artists and marketed to Black buyers, named for the era's segregation, that turned out to be worth millions to record companies. What are race records?